

JOURNEYS INTO NIGHT BY DON CHARLWOOD

JOURNEYS INTO NIGHT (AUD$24.50) – a wonderful autobiographical account of Bomber Command is now published by Burgewood Books. It covers the years 1939 to 1945 – the years of WWII. The author's experiences and those of the 19 men with whom he trained, are related in such detail that this book is much more than a memoir. Journeys into Night is notable for the clarity and power of its writing. Don Charlwood's wartime experiences -- travelling overseas, training, the tedium and terror of ops -- are recreated in vivid and moving detail. (Elizabeth Webby, Professor of Australian Literature, University of Sydney). Don Charlwood's other highly acclaimed memoir about Bomber Command is No Moon Tonight, published by Crecy in England.

Other books by Don Charlwood published by Burgewood Books focus on immigration by sailing ship from Britain to Australia, and shipwrecks associated with the immigrants' journeys. They are as follows:

The Long Farewell (AUD$26.50), Wrecks and Reputations (AUD$20.50), Settlers Under Sail (AUD$12.50), and The Wreck of the Sailing Ship Netherby (AUD$15.50). The Edward Charlwood Diary (AUD$22.50) is a facsimile edition of the shipboard diary kept by Don's great-uncle in 1863 en route from England to Australia; and An Afternoon of Time (AUD$9.50) is a book of delightful short stories set in rural Australia of the 1930s.
